

Invitation to Apply

Director Needed Portland Metro Concert Band

Portland Metro Concert Band is made up of approximately 55 adult musicians who volunteer their time and skill and love of music. The band rehearses on Monday evenings.

Brief Description

The PMCB Director is a volunteer position. The director selects the music for rehearsals and performances and retains control over artistic decisions; conducts all rehearsals and performances; is a member of and attends monthly board meetings, sharing updates about band direction and administration; opens and closes the weekly rehearsal space (or delegates these duties to assigned members); oversees and maintains the director's budget.

Qualifications/Skills

- Music education background (preferred, not required)
- Concert band performance and/or conducting experience
- Ability to work with adult musicians of various skill levels
- Interpersonal communication skills that will lead members to musical excellence while encouraging and supporting an enjoyable environment for making music together
- Demonstrate proficiency in administrative skills

Application

Please send a letter of interest, resumé, references, and any other relevant materials to: loisjwagner@gmail.com. You may also call 503-833-2863 if you have questions about applying.

Further information about PMCB is available at <https://portlandmetroband.org/>